Six Degrees of Celebration [Eiki] (Bekmambetov, 2010)

Five short stories about contemporary life in Russia.

Germans occupy the frontiers of the Soviet Union and citizens are torn between resisting
and collaborating.

A documentary
depicting the life and work of trappers in Bakhtia, a village in the Siberian Taiga.

A rural businessman
must decide whether to sell his land to the government or stand up for the rights of the local people.

This New Year's
comedy unfolds in cities across Russia,
revealing surprising
connections between the characters.

This series is held in conjunction with Russian 3460. All films are in Russian with English subtitles. Students may receive extra credit from their instructors for attending screenings.
