

Slavic Professionalization Award

Through the generosity of the Slavic Advisory Council, this award supports students who have received an internship or participating in another professional development activity.

The application comprises the following: (1) This form, with all the required information filled out; (2) a statement in English specifying why you are applying for the funds and how you intend to use them; (3) a Slavic Department faculty member, lecturer, or Graduate Teaching Associate who has agreed to be a reference; (4) evidence of application for an internship or professional development endeavor (please note that funds will only be dispersed once a confirmation of acceptance to the internship or professional development endeavor is received). All applications should be submitted by the deadline to the Department of Slavic and East European Languages and Cultures, 400 Hagerty Hall, or to Derek Peterson at peterston.636@osu.edu.
