

Uprka-Laga-Schweitzer Award in Czech Studies

The Uprka-Laga-Schweitzer fund is used to defray the cost of tuition and other program expenses for undergraduate and graduate students studying Czech language and/or Czech culture in the Czech Republic (specifically the Moravia regions).

The application comprises the following: (1) This form, with all the required information filled out; (2) a statement in English specifying why you are applying for the funds and how you intend to use them; (3) a Slavic Department faculty member, lecturer, or Graduate Teaching Associate who has agreed to be a reference. All applications should be submitted by the deadline to the Department of Slavic and East European Languages and Cultures, 400 Hagerly Hall, or to Derek Peterson at peterston.636@osu.edu.
