THE CENTER FOR SLAVIC & EAST EUROPEAN STUDIES &
THE DEPARTMENT OF SLAVIC & EAST EUROPEAN LANGUAGES & LITERATURES
in conjunction with Russian 360

PRESENTS

the

FALL 2010 FILM SERIES

ALL FILMS SCREENED WITH ENGLISH SUBTITLES

October 11, 2010 @ 6:00PM - 8:00PM in Jennings Hall 155
Ivan’s Childhood (Иваново детство)
12-year old Ivan works as a spy on the Eastern Front. Can Ivan cross German lines unnoticed in order to collect information?

October 18, 2010 @ 6:00PM - 8:00PM in Jennings Hall 155
The Childhood of Maxim Gorky (Детство)
12-year old Aleksei Peshkov lives in 19th century tsarist Russia and will later be known as Maxim Gorky, one of Russia’s most famous and celebrated novelists and dramatists.

November 1, 2010 @ 6:00PM - 8:00PM in Jennings Hall 155
Kindergarten (Детский сад)
Evgeni journeys alone from Moscow to his grandmother’s Siberian village during WW2.

November 8, 2010 @ 6:00PM - 8:00PM in Jennings Hall 155
The Thief (Вор)
Sanya and his mother are provided for by a handsome soldier with seemingly good intentions. They quickly learn that everything comes at a cost.

November 22, 2010 @ 6:00PM - 8:00PM in Jennings Hall 155
Scarecrow (Чучело)
Constantly bullied and teased by her classmates, Lena must find a way to persevere.

Movie descriptions credited to IMDB